A CONTRIBUTION TO THE GENEALOGY

OF THE

BURBANK FAMILY

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

NOTE. — This little work makes no pretention to be a complete genealogy of the BURBANK FAMILY from its settlement in America to the present time ; it preserves such records and incidents relating to the family as could be gathered from Town and Parish Registers and by a considerable correspondence. It is to be hoped that some one will in future supply the deficiencies, and publish a complete genealogy and history of this distinguished family. No doubt errors will be discovered, but the compiler has carefully transcribed originals placed in his hands. A few blanks are inserted for corrections and addenda.

THE SURNAME. I have carefully examined the new "Dooms-day Book" and can find the surname "Burbank" but once in a list of some ten thousand names of land-owners in Great Britain. But I find the name "Bowerbank" in several counties. The name was spelled "Borebancke" in the early New England records. The name "Bowbank" is also found in English books. An old lady connected with the Long Island branch believes her ancestors spelled their names "Burbancke." Almost every surname found in New England has been changed in orthography, and I have little doubt that the original of this surname was "Bowerbank."

COAT OF ARMS. I can find no mention of a coat of Arms in "Burk's General Armory." Walford in his "County Families" does not mention the family. The tradition that they were of German derivation may be true, and if so, a coat of arms may have been granted the family before their settlement in England.

BURBANK FAMILY RECORDS.

(ROWLEY BRANCH.)

- 1 John Burbank was made freeman in Rowley, Mass., 13 May 1640. In his will of 5 April 1681, he mentions wife Fimima and children John, Caleb and Lydia. This John is supposed to be the ancestor of all of the name in New England.
- 2 Joseph Burbank came over in the ship "Abigail" from London, England, in 1635, aged 24, but "it is not known (says Savage) where he sat down." When at the Custom House his name was spelled "Borebancke."
- 3 Caleb Burbank, supposed to be son of John (1) was of Rowley, Mass., in 1691. Had children John and Lydia: perhaps others. It will be seen that "Caleb" as well as other early family names have been continued in the family.
- 4 John Burbank, supposed to be son of John (1) was of Haverhill, Mass., and married 15 Oct. 1663, Susanna, daughter of Nathaniel Merrill. He removed to Suffield in 1680 with several children. Wife died in Suffield in 1690; and though he had second and third wives, no more children.
- 5 Lydia Burbank, daughter of Caleb (3) married Abram Foster in 1655.
- 6 John Burbank, son of John (4) married Mary Granger 21 Dec. 1699: died in 1739. See "Early Puritan Settlers of Connecticut." John's children as follows:

BURBANCKS OF STATEN ISLAND, NEW YORK.

(GERMAN BRANCH.)

15 Abraham Burbanck, is said to have come from Netherlands with two brothers and two sisters in the ship "Caledonia"; the vessel was partly wrecked on the passage and one sister was lost. They landed in New York early in the 18th century, and Abraham settled on Staten Island; the other brothers proceeded in other directions. This branch claim to be of a French-German stock, and there is preserved in the family a tall clock, writing-desk, and secretary-bureau, handed down from the ancestor, said to be quite two hundred years old. Is it possible that John and Joseph so early in New England, (see other branches in this book) were of the same stock? It will be seen that Joseph's name at the Custom House was spelled almost identical with this ancestor, viz: "Borebancke." I have no mention of Abrahams wife. Children as follows:

- i. Abraham, son of Abraham (15), was born November 20, 1745, and died May 12, 1823. Children as follows:
 - i. ABRAHAM, son of Abraham (i), born 1780: died 1838. He married Catherine Houghwart, and had issue as follows:
 - i. MARGARET, born 1806; married Nicholas Youngman.
 - ii. CATHERINE, born 1808.
 - iii. CHARLOTTE, born 1820, (by 2nd wife) married — Mank of Albany, N. Y.
 - iv. RICHARD C., born in 1822; married Catherine M. Douglas, and had issue as follows: 1 Margaret, 2 Louisa, 3 Emma, 4 Sarah, and 5 Catherine.
 - v. GEORGE, married Catherine Relyea, and resides in Albany, New York.
 - vi. JOSEPH.
 - vii. ANN, married George Holt of Chicago, Ills.
- 2 JACOB, son of Abraham (i), married Martha Gram, (?) settled on Staten Island and had issue. Numerous descendants are now living at Tomkinsville, Staten Island, and other towns near. I am sorry I could not have procured a more complete genealogy of this branch.

- i. JACOB L., son of Jacob (2), was born on Staten Island, New York, and is now living at Tompkinsville, S. I. He has issue as follows: 1 Elizabeth A., 2 Margaret A., 3 William D., who married Susan J. —, and has issue William D., Jr., George G., and daughters whose names do not appear.
- ii. JOHN W., son of Jacob (2), was born on Staten Island, N. York, married and has issue. He lives at Castleton, Corners, Staten Island.
- iii. ANN, daughter of Jacob (2), married — Egbert and had several children.
- iv. LETTIE, daughter of Jacob (2).
- 3 ISAAC, son of Abraham (i), had three children as follows: 1 Mary A., married Vincent Bodie; 2 Edward, Sanitary Police, New York, and 3 Sarah ♀.
- 4 JOHN, son of Abraham (i), had issue as follows: 1 Ann, 2 Mary, 3 Daniel, 4 Henry, 5 John, and 6 Catherine.

NOTE. — There are two Edward Burbancks and two Samuel Burbancks (father and son), living in Staten Island. Also, numerous descendants of the first Abraham on the female side. The family is the largest on the Island; those on the North side are said to be "too numerous to mention."
